Shakespeare's England

C2333695

In late 16th century England, sweeping new ideas would begin to gather into a storm that would lead to civil war. The fundamental structure of Tudor society was being questioned. Woven into Shakespeare's plays are explorations of these new and dangerous ideas that would radically change Britain forever. We explore those ideas through plays such as Richard II, Henry IV and V, and Hamlet.

Help with your Learning

Help choosing a course

If you need advice, ring local WEA staff who can help you choose the right course. You can also speak to your tutor at the first class to ensure you are happy with your choice.

Help with extra learning needs

If you have a disability, learning difficulty, health issue or other support needs, we will try to help. Ask as soon as you can so that we can make plans before you start a course.

Help to plan your next step

If you would like to find out how learning with the WEA could help you develop your skills or career, or help you into further or higher education, please talk to your course tutor or local WEA staff or visit <https://nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk> (free helpline 0800 100 900).

Accessible venues

We try to use accessible venues wherever possible but we cannot guarantee this in all cases. For details of a venue's accessibility, please call local WEA staff.

Equality and diversity

The WEA is committed to equality and diversity in every part of the organisation. For more information visit www.wea.org.uk/equality.

Course Fees and Financial Support

Financial support for course costs

If you, or a member of your immediate family, are on an eligible income-related benefit, your course fees may be waived or reduced, so your course may be free of charge. (Please note: fee waiver isn't available on all courses). There are also funds available to help with childcare, essential books or equipment needed for your course. We may still be able to help you if you're living on a low income or you're suffering financial hardship. Help is limited to three courses a year. To find out more please call your local WEA office.

Age eligibility

Students must be 19 or over by 31 August at the start of the current academic year to enrol on a WEA course.

Discounts for multiple courses

If you pay your fees in full and you attend two or more courses at the same time, we'll give you a 10% discount on your additional courses, so you'll only pay the full fee for your longest course. Please note: if you'd like to claim a discount, you'll need to book by post or phone.

Course cancellation and refunds

You can cancel a course booking at any time, in writing, by phone or by calling your local office/branch.

- A full/partial refund will be given to all students where a course is cancelled or shortened by the branch/organiser.
- If you cancel within seven working days of booking and the course hasn't already started, you'll receive a full refund.
- If the course is delivered over more than three sessions, you can cancel before the start of the second session and still receive a refund. There may be an admin charge.

All other refunds will only be considered in exceptional circumstances.

The cost of your course

We receive funding from the Government to subsidise our courses which helps us keep fees as low as possible. As part of this, we need to ask you for your date of birth and how long you've been resident in the UK/EU when you enrol. If you haven't been resident in the UK/EU for the last three years, we'll ask you to complete a Student Eligibility Form and provide appropriate proof.

General Information

Field trips

Some courses will have trips as part of the course, which may incur extra costs.

Photocopying

Many tutors make a small charge for photocopies.

Student Agreement and Student Code of Conduct

When you enrol with us, you'll sign up to a Learning Agreement, printed on your enrolment form, and our Student Code of Conduct. Together, these set out our and your responsibilities for creating a positive learning environment. You can download both from our website at www.wea.org.uk/policies.

Student safety

The WEA is committed to providing a welcoming environment where everyone is respected, valued and feels safe and secure. If you feel unsafe for any reason at all – as a result of, for example, discrimination, abuse, harassment or bullying – speak to your tutor or course organiser. Alternatively you can speak to safeguarding staff (Vicki Jones and Mel Lenehan) in the WEA Regional Office (01159 628400).

If things need to be put right

If you feel there is a problem, please talk to us first, so we have a chance to put things right. Please talk to your tutor, local branch or office or call the WEA Regional Office on 0115 962 8400. If you're not satisfied with the outcome, you can ask to see our Complaints Procedure.

Membership

Membership is open to anyone who supports our aims and values. Members get regular updates about our campaigns, fundraising and events and are encouraged to share their views through surveys and polls. You can join using the course enrolment form or by calling the WEA Regional Office on 0115 962 8400 or email your full name, postal address, phone number and date of birth to membership@wea.org.uk
